

Mme. Luisa Tetraxini Says of the

Hardman Piano

"It is most gratifying to me to add my name to those of the many celebrated musicians who use the Hardman Piano in their homes and have proclaimed it the leading instrument of the century."

Walter D. Moses & Co., 103 East Broad Street, Richmond, Va. Oldest Music House in Virginia and North Carolina.

Social and Personal

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander F. Robertson, in Staunton, there will be taken place at 8 o'clock this evening one of the prettiest weddings of the season, when their daughter, Miss Susie Baldwin Robertson, will become the bride of Peyton Cochran, also of Staunton.

The beautiful old Colonial home, which has been in the family of the bride's mother since it was built in 1792, will be decorated throughout with palms, smilax and quantities of white flowers with a garland of smilax on the stair in the hall. Only relatives and a few intimate friends will be present at the ceremony, which will take place at one end of the wide hall, where an improvised altar will be formed of palms and white roses. The Rt. Rev. Robert A. Gibson, uncle of the bride, will perform the ceremony, assisted by the Rev. Robert C. Jett, rector of Emmanuel Episcopal Church, Staunton. Miss Mercer Dawson will preside at the piano.

The bride, who will enter on the arm of her father, will wear an exquisite gown of white cashmere de sole trimmed in rare old lace. She will wear pearl ornaments and carry a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and white orchids.

Miss Sarah Tunstall Robertson will attend her sister as maid of honor, and will be handsomely gowned in pale pink cashmere de sole, trimmed in pearls and will carry pink roses. John Baldwin Cochran will be the groom's best man. The bridesmaids, who will wear dainty frocks of white and carry nosegays of pink sweetpeas, will be Miss Margaret Lynn Cochran, Miss Mary Gibson, of Richmond; Miss Cornelia Somerville, of Culpeper county, and Miss Mary Stuart Robertson, of Staunton.

The groomsmen will include: F. Graham Coates, of New York; T. Casby Jones, of Norfolk; J. W. H. Pison and Alexander Stuart Robertson, of Staunton; Little Miss Margaret Peyton Gibbary and Master George Cochran Dabb will hold the ribbons.

This marriage unites two of the oldest families of the State. The bride is a daughter of Alexander Robertson, a prominent lawyer and banker, and a granddaughter of the late A. H. H. Stuart, Secretary of the Interior under President Fillmore. Mr. Cochran, who is a graduate of Princeton and the University of Virginia, is a member of the Staunton bar, and a son of the late George M. Cochran, who stood pre-eminent at the bar of Virginia in his day, and a grandson on his maternal side of John Howe Peyton, of Montgomery Hall.

A brilliant reception will follow the ceremony, and a number of distinguished guests from all over the State will be present. The wedding will be officiated by Bishop Gibson and the Misses Gibson, Mrs. Hunter McGuire, Dr. Stuart McGuire, Hunter McGuire, Dr. M. O. Burke, Hampden Chamberlain, Rev. Edmund S. Woodward, Miss Lettice Woodward, Mrs. John H. Guy and John H. Guy, Jr., Miss Catherine Lancaster, Mrs. James Lyons, of Richmond; F. Graham Coates, Mrs. Leslie Carpenter, Miss Nana Young, of New York; Dr. J. E. Byster, of the University of Virginia; Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Daub and Master George Cochran Daub, of Cumberland, Md.; Mrs. Buckingham Paul, of Roanoke; Miss Mercer Duerson, of Clifton Forge, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Nalle, of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. John H. Price, of Baltimore, Md.; and Mrs. Dora Slaughter and the Misses Somerville, of Culpeper county. Miss Mary Duke, of Charlottesville, Va.; Mrs. R. Cary Montague, of Romney, Va.; V. R. Shackelford, of Orange, Va.; Mrs. Roland Ellis, of Columbus, O.; Judge R. T. W. Duke and J. W. Duke, of Charlottesville, and Dabney Lancaster, of the University of Virginia.

Prominent Weddings. Mrs. Charles Matthew Shields has issued invitations for the marriage of her daughter, Caroline, to Trusten Folk Draper, of Wilmington, N. C., the ceremony to take place Wednesday evening, April 27, at 8:30 o'clock in St. Paul's Church. A reception will follow at the home of the bride, 19 North Fifth Street. The wedding will be one of the brilliant social events of the spring.

Invitations have also been received in Richmond for the wedding of Miss Pocahontas Rust Hendren, daughter of William Hardy Hendren, to John Amlier Mason, formerly of this city, now of New York. The ceremony will take place on Wednesday evening, April 27, at 6 o'clock in Christ Church Cathedral, New Orleans. Miss Hendren made her formal debut in New Orleans this winter and has been one of the most popular girls in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. J. Melyton announce the marriage of their daughter, Bessie May, to Robert Newton Wildbore, the ceremony having been performed March 14 in Halifax, N. C.

Bridge Party at the Jefferson. A very attractive and interesting event of this week will be a bridge party in the palm garden of the Jefferson Hotel on Thursday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. Admiral Webster has charge of the arrangements for the party, and the following ladies will receive the guests: Mrs. John Dunlop, Mrs. James H. Scott, Mrs. Melvin Peck, Miss Mary Thomas and Mrs. Thomas F. Jefferson. Handsome prizes will be awarded, and society women of Richmond will attend this attractive affair.

Week-End at Old Point. Last week at Old Point Comfort was an exceptionally gay one, with dinners on board the different warships, card parties at the hotel, and finally the hop Saturday evening, which was attended by a number of people from the different regiments. Among the gay little parties from Richmond were Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Kerkelade, Lathrop, Mr. and Mrs. Cloyd Kent, Miss Edith Taylor, Miss Nan Wilson, of Charleston, W. Va., and Pickett Lathrop.

Rose-Redmond. A marriage of interest to a large circle of friends in this city is that of Miss Allys Lambert Redmond to Ruthford Rose, the marriage taking place at 6 o'clock in the parlors of the Rev. J. B. O'Reilly. The bride, who is an attractive brunette, was gowned in a traveling suit of tan cloth. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Redmond, of West Main Street, and Mr. Rose is a son of the late Charles A. Rose. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Rose left for a Northern tour.

Receptions at the Y. W. C. A. Each of the candidates presented in the campaign for membership in the Young Woman's Christian Association is to have a reception at the association building, 709 East Franklin Street, during the campaign. This afternoon the candidates will receive. They are Miss Caroline Holladay, Mrs. Picher, Mrs. Carlton Jackson, Miss Pauline Powers will pour tea.

To-morrow afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock the Presbyterians and Christian churches will receive the guests. They will be Mrs. H. D. C. Macchellan, Mrs. Chiles Ferrell, Mrs. Charles Lee, Mrs. Thomas Cary Johnson, Mrs. H. B. Atkins, Mrs. W. A. Crenshaw, Misses Gertrude Crenshaw and Margaret Robinson, who will receive the tea table, and a cordial invitation is extended to the women of Richmond to be present.

Meetings To-Day. An especially important meeting of the board of the Virginia Inebriates has been called for this morning at 11 o'clock in Murphy's Hotel. Members are urged to attend. The director of the Pocahontas Memorial Association for the State of Virginia, Mrs. Thomas S. Becock, asks all members to meet at the residence of Mrs. D. T. Williams, 1019 Park Avenue, this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The class in chorus and harmony will meet at the Young Woman's Christian Association at 8 o'clock this evening. Mr. Hill, instructor, will give the first lesson in the second course. Miss Watson, of Portland, Oregon, will sing, and the public is invited to attend.

Hobart-Britton. A very pretty wedding took place last Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Britton, 1005 North Twenty-fifth Street, when their daughter, Florence, became the bride of Edwin Robert Hobart of Norfolk. The parlors were decorated in flowers and palms. The bride wore a handsome traveling gown of blue cloth with hat and gloves to match. N. C. Napier and Andrew Britton, whether at the bride, acted as ushers. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Joel Tucker, of Forest Hill, formerly pastor of the East End Baptist Church. Mr. and Mrs. Robert will make their home in Norfolk, Va.

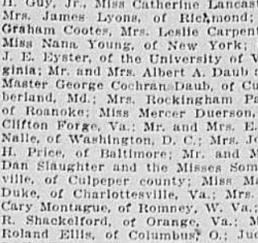

Arrives To-Day. Miss Follie LaFollette arrived to-day and will be entertained by Miss Johnston and Miss Eloise Johnston during her stay in Richmond. Her appearance in a delightful one-act comedy, "How the Vote Was Won," at the Jefferson Hotel auditorium, is looked forward to with much pleasure by Richmond society. To artistic talent, Miss LaFollette unites a most attractive personality. She is the daughter of United States Senator LaFollette, of Wisconsin.

To Visit Friends Here. Miss Virginia Dew, of Wytheville, Va., who was among those attending the recent hops given at Lexington by the Washington and Lee and V. M. I. students, is now the guest of Miss Nellie Powell in Lynchburg. Later Miss Dew will visit friends in this city.

Engagement Announced. Mr. and Mrs. H. James Rhodes, of Cartersville, Va., announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Anna Mae, to Joseph Scott Crowder, of Hunters Lodge, Va., the ceremony to take place on Wednesday, April 20. COULD NOT WASH DISHES In Such Misery Her Husband Begged Her to Take Cardui

—So Says Mrs. Bishop, of Waverly, Va.

Waverly, Va.—"I suffered miserably, every month," says Mrs. Mattie L. Bishop, of this place, "and everything I ate would put me in such misery I would have to go to bed until it wore off. I could not even wash my dishes, after a meal.

"At last, my husband begged me to take Cardui. I had tried so many different kinds of medicine, I didn't want to take it, but agreed to try it for his sake.

"Before I had finished one bottle, I could eat all I wanted, and could do all of my work, all right. Now I feel all right, and suffer each month but very little pain."

If you are ailing, suffering from any of the troubles so common to women, or if you are merely weak and lack life and energy, remember that there is, on the shelf of your favorite druggist, a bottle of Cardui, waiting for you, ready for instant use, ready to give you relief, to build up your strength, to make you feel young, and fresh, and hopeful.

The bottle is there. Will you get it? N. B.—Write to: Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.

NIGHT WATCHMAN COMMITS SUICIDE

Shoots Himself Through Heart. Date for Democratic Primary Set.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Raleigh, N. C., April 11.—At Midway, N. C., April 11, the night watchman, was found being pressed close by, where it had fallen from the nerveless hand of the dying man. An investigation by the coroner resulted in a statement by him that there was such clear evidence of suicide that an inquest by a jury was not necessary. York was unmarried, had been in poor health for a long time and was especially restless and on his "nerves" Sunday. The automatic watchman's body in the mill was punched last at 1 o'clock, indicating that the suicide occurred between 1 and 2 o'clock.
